

SPACE Writing Toolkit – LKS2 – Writing Prompts

Writing Prompts:

Waking Up in Space: Imagine you wake up on a spaceship. What do you see outside the windows, and where are you going?

The Secret Alien: You've just discovered a tiny alien hiding in your backpack. What do you do, and what does the alien want?

The Moving Star: One night, a bright star begins to move closer to Earth. What happens next?

Mission to Space: You've been chosen to go on a space mission with your best friend. What do you pack, and what adventures await you?

The Glowing Object: While stargazing, you notice a strange, glowing object in the sky. What is it, and how do you find out more?

The Pillow Planet: You land on a colourful planet where the ground feels soft like pillows. What kind of creatures live there, and how do they greet you?

The Wish on a Shooting Star: A shooting star passes by, and you make a wish. The next morning, your wish comes true in a surprising way. What happens?

The Mystery on the Moon: You're the captain of a space team exploring the Moon. While collecting rocks, you discover something mysterious under the surface. What is it?

Alien at School: An alien from another planet comes to your school for a day. What do they think of Earth, and what surprises them the most?

The Hidden Door: You find a hidden door in your bedroom that leads to a secret spaceship. Where does the spaceship take you, and what do you discover?

SPACE Writing Toolkit – LKS2 – Sentence Starters

Here's a bank of sentence starters that can be used as prompts or to help you get started with your writing based on the provided writing prompts:

Sentence starters to help you get going...

As I opened my eyes, I realised I wasn't in my bed anymore, but...

The alien in my backpack peeked out and whispered...

The bright star in the sky started to move closer and closer until...

We stepped onto the spaceship, and suddenly...

Looking up at the night sky, I saw a glowing object flying...

The creatures on the soft, pillow-like planet looked at me and...

When I woke up, I couldn't believe my wish on the shooting star had...

As I dug into the Moon's surface, I found something glowing...

The alien visiting our school looked confused when they saw...

Behind the hidden door in my bedroom was the most amazing...

