

The Missing Football Boots

Layla was excited. Today was the big match - Oakfield School vs. Brookside Primary.

Layla was the team's best striker, and she couldn't wait to score a goal.

She rushed into the changing room, but something was wrong. Her football boots were missing!

Layla's heart sank. She checked under the benches, behind the lockers, even in her bag twice. Still no boots.

"Maybe you left them at home?" suggested Priya, her teammate.

"No way. I packed them myself," Layla replied, frowning.

Just then, Mr Patel, the P.E. teacher, walked in. "Looking for these?" he smiled, holding up a muddy pair of boots.

Layla's eyes widened. "Where were they?"

"They were by the lost property box. Someone must've picked them up by mistake after training yesterday."

Layla grinned. She slipped on her boots and ran onto the pitch just in time.

That afternoon, Oakfield won 3-2 - and Layla scored the winning goal!
